OCTOBER is the month for much informal entertaining, and the next few weeks will be gay with small tea parties at the club and in many of the homes. A few friends in for tea is a very charming and delightful mode of hospitality, and a number of guests will be entertained this week.

Miss Frances Scott invited a few friends in for tea yesterday afternoon at half past 4 o'clock to meet Mrs. Gwynne Taylor, of "Welburne," who is visiting in Richmond. Mrs. Taylor was formerly Miss Lemmon before her marriage, and was one of the most prominent girls in Baltimore society, where she made her debut several years ago.

Miss Pauline Powers entertained twelve guests at tea yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Miss Powers gave her tea at the Country Club, and decorations were in scarlet flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. William Armstrong Timms, of 2525 Park Avenue, have issued cards announcing the marriage of their daughter, Marguerite, to Archibald Valentine Rountree, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rountree, also of this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, with the Rev. J. Y. Downman, of the All Saints' Church, officiating. Russell

Rountree attended his brother as best man, and only the immediate families of the bride and groom were present at the wedding, which was celebrated very quietly.

Mr. and Mrs. Rountree left at once for a wedding trip North, and on their return to Richmond they will make their home at 2525 Park Avenue. The groom is manager of the Rountree retail store here, and is a son of one of the leading business men of Richmond.

Bowe-Glinn.

The marriage of Wythe D. Bowe, of Charlottesville, and Miss Beale Glinn, daughter of the late P. D. Glinn, was celebrated Wednesday in Washington, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. H. B. Smith. Mr. Bowe attended the University of Virginia for the past two seasons, and is a member of the real estate firm of McIntire & Bowe, in Charlottesville. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Bowe, of this city, his father being one of the most prominent real estate men in Richmond. The bride is a very pretty girl, and prominent with the younger society set at the University of Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Bowe will make their home in Charlottesville on their return from their wedding trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Truheart.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Truheart, who have been spending the summer at Cockeysville, Md., are now occupying their apartment at the Washington, in Baltimore, which they have leased for the winter. Mr. Truheart formerly lived in Richmond, and his marriage to Miss Dorothy Tait, of Baltimore, was celebrated in that city last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Howard Redd have returned to Richmond, after their wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other places of interest in the North. They will make their home at 111 Roberts Street, in Barton Heights. Mr. Redd was formerly Miss Esale Gertrude Phillips, of Laurel, Del.

Weddings of Interest.

The marriage of Miss Estelle Mann Russell and Vivian S. Dickinson was celebrated at the home of the bride's sister, Miss W. E. Higgins, 509 North Twenty-first Street, at 7:15 o'clock on Wednesday evening. Miss Lillian Williams, of Wilmington, N. C., was the bride's maid of honor, and W. E. Higgins acted as best man. Frank Dickinson and E. L. Jones were ushers. The parlors were decorated with palms and bows of lovely roses, and the Rev. J. R. Johnson, pastor of Venable Street Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Dickinson left at once for an extended northern tour, and on their return November 1, will make their home at 1822 Hanover Avenue.

Of interest to friends in Richmond was the announcement of the marriage of Miss Alice White Hettrick, of Norfolk, and Carlton E. Shaffer, of the ceremony having taken place on Thursday of last week in Philadelphia. The ceremony was performed at the home of friends by the Rev. J. D. C. Hanna, pastor of the Parkside Methodist Episcopal Church. The bride is a graduate of Miss Marshall's school at Oak Lane, Philadelphia, and is a popular member of the younger set in Norfolk. Mr. Shaffer is a graduate of the Delaware State College, and until recently has been employed on dry dock construction for the Navy Department, and located at the Norfolk Navy Yard.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Shaffer will reside in Norfolk.

Linen Shower.

A very pretty affair given on Tuesday of this week was a linen shower given at the home of Miss Jessie Ham, 209 South Cherry Street, in honor of Miss Amelia Oswald, from half-past 8 o'clock to 11. The parlors were prettily arranged with vases of yellow and white flowers, and an interesting musical program amused the guests. The bride-elect was "shadowed" with dainty gifts from an umbrella suspended above her chair in the center of the room. The umbrella was entirely covered with yellow and white flowers, carrying out the color scheme of the rest of the decorations. Supper was served at 10 o'clock.

Miss Ham's guest for Tuesday night included Miss Bertha Dietrich, Daisy Goode, Patti Framer, Minnie Wade, Rosa Clayton, Nellie Smith, Bessie and Cleve Gary, Ethel and Myrtle Braunschaw, Teresa and Gertrude Johnson, Lizzie Browder, Mable Yarbrough, Helen McCartney, Elizabeth Jenkins, Mrs. W. C. Oswald, mother of the bride-elect, Mrs. J. H. Moss, Mrs. C. P. Johnson, Mrs. Everett Clayton, Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mrs. Brooks.

Visiting Colonel Chapman.

Rev. and Mrs. John H. Chapman, of Ridgefield, Conn., are the guests of Colonel W. H. Chapman. The young minister and his wife are about to go to Europe, and while in Oldenburg, Germany, they will be the guests of General Robert W. Massow. This notable German figure was sent to this country when a young lieutenant to observe the War Between the States on the Confederate side. He was detailed with the command of Colonel Mosby, and in that way became acquainted with Colonel Chapman.

Invitations Issued.

Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Vincent Hughes have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maria Elizabeth Hughes, to Hunter McGuire Talman, the ceremony to take place on Thursday morning, October 13, at 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, 511 Monteiro Avenue, Barton Heights.

Art Exhibit.

An interesting feature in the north end of the woman's building, at the State Fair is the exhibit of pictures by the pupils of the Art Club of Richmond. On one side of the wall is hung the work of the junior members of the club, which shows marked ability. Most of the work is from still life, landscape and work from models. The most notable work done by the junior members is that of Miss Dewey Hughes and Miss Sart McGee.

The work of the senior members of the club is mostly work in portrait heads, illustration and design. Perhaps the best work exhibited by the seniors is that of Miss Helen Lorraine, Miss Edith Ragland and Miss Katherine Rhoads.

Entertainment in Newport News.

Mrs. A. Y. Burcher entertained at five hundred Monday night at her home in Newport News. The affair was given in honor of her sister, Mrs. J. H. Burcher, of this city, and supper was served at the conclusion of the game. A. H. Barnes was awarded the first prize, and Burleigh Clark drew the consolation.

Marriage Announced.

The marriage is announced of Miss Harriet Murray and George H. Eddy, the ceremony having taken place on September 16 in the parlor of the parsonage at 1010 East Marshall Street. Mr. Eddy is a local representative of the National Cash Register Company, and he and his bride will make their home in this city. Mrs. Eddy is from North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Crum, of Staunton, have issued invitations to marriage of their daughter, Edna Florence, to William Kenney Buckley, the wedding to take place at Churchville on October 15. After a bridal tour they will be at home in Richmond, where Mr. Buckley, who was formerly with the Adams Express Company in Staunton, is now shipping.

In and Out of Town.

James Caskie and Robert Watts have returned to Lynchburg after spending several days in this city.

Miss Margaret Wadley, who has been guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Boxley, in Roanoke, has returned to Richmond.

Andrew J. Clark, of Crozet, and John E. McCaugherty, of Wytheville, are spending this week with J. B. Williams at his home, 2500 Grove Avenue.

Miss Bernadette Meredith, who attended the Hanlon-Meredith wedding in Staunton, has returned to the city.

Mrs. G. R. Faircloth, of Olmstead, and W. J. Stinson, of Vivian, W. Va., are visiting their sisters, the Misses Sisson, here.

Mrs. Josie Smith and Miss Ida Palmer have returned to the city after a visit to Cumberland and Powhatan.

Miss Janie Cooke is attending the opening dances at the University of Virginia.

Mrs. Ruth Branch Jones, of Norfolk, is spending some time here as the guest of relatives.

Professor Edmund Harrison and Mrs. Harrison are guests of Mrs. Howard D. Hoge at 1601 West Grace Street.

Mrs. R. A. Buckner and her daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Buckner, of Roanoke, are in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Curtis and daughter, of Newport News, are spending several days here.

Dr. and Mrs. Welburn and their little daughter, Mary, who have been visiting Mrs. and Mrs. Fielding Lewis, in Powhatan, have returned to their home in Washington.

Dr. Margaret Bowen, accompanied by her parents, Captain and Mrs. H. A. Bowen, of Tazewell, has returned to the city for the winter.

Frank Richardson has returned to his home in Newport News after a visit to friends here.

Miss Mamie Fuller, Miss Josephine Daly, of Phoebus, and Miss Emma Nedd, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. James F. Bradley, at 1212 Porter Street, South Richmond.

OCCUPATION SOON WILL BE COMPLETE

Italy Now Has 22,000 Troops in Tripoli and 15,000 En Route.

Rome, October 12, via Frontier.—With the landing of 22,000 troops in Tripoli and another convoy soon to follow with 15,000 more, the Italian government feels that the occupation will soon be completed and that Turkey will accept the inevitable.

The most interesting news from Tripoli, outside of the safe landing of the soldiers, is that relating to the presence there of former Premier Sonnino, leader of the constitutional opposition in the chamber of Deputies, and Count Guicciardini, who was Minister of Foreign Affairs in the Sonnino Cabinet. They acted quite as secretly as Premier Giolitti did in dispatching the troops, and their arrival in Tripoli was entirely unexpected.

They express the intention to follow the troops, so that they may personally become acquainted with the problems which Italy must solve and which can be gotten out of the new colony. Undoubtedly their chief object is to ascertain how the possession of Tripoli may help in the regeneration of the South.

That an armistice has been arranged between Italy and Turkey, as reported from Berlin, is strenuously denied by the Italian government.

A dispatch from Tripoli to the Giornale d'Italia says that the Turkish government, being unable to communicate directly with Munir Pasha, commander of the former Turkish garrison at Tripoli, has telegraphed to the Turkish consuls at Tunis and Malta to instruct him to resist as long as possible.

Consular reports have reached the Italian government stating that thirty Italian laborers employed on the Hedjaz Railroad, on the boundary line between Egypt and Syria, were massacred at Kerak, Syria, early in October.

Will Act Quickly.

Tripoli, October 12.—General Canova, commander-in-chief of the Italian expedition, has decided to act quickly, and it is believed that the troops under him will march immediately against the positions occupied by the Turks. A reconnaissance of the coast today disclosed the central body of the Turkish troops with field guns not far from the city.

Nineteen more Italian transports, escorted by warships and carrying the second division of the troops, arrived this morning. The men were hastily landed. This division is 15,000 strong, and there are now 22,000 Italian soldiers on the coast of Tripoli. Not only is the Italian position safeguarded against surprise, but an effective occupation of the interior can begin.

It is reported that the Arabs have accepted the Italian occupation joyfully, but some of the warships remain in the harbor in readiness for emergencies. Troops were landed to-day also at Benghazi, Derna, Tobruk and Bomba.

Although the utmost precautions have been taken looking to the perfecting of sanitary arrangements, cholera has broken out, and it is reported that four deaths have occurred. General Canova has addressed a proclamation to the inhabitants, assuring them that they have not been enslaved by Italy. On the contrary, they have been liberated from the yoke under which they have been laboring for years. They will be ruled by their own chiefs under the patronage of the King of Italy. Religious and civil laws will be respected, and taxes will be reduced or abolished.

The proclamation concludes by announcing that Italy desires that Tripoli shall remain the land of Islam under the protection of Italy.

Death of Mrs. Mary E. Hancock.

Mrs. Mary E. Hancock, wife of Selwyn Hancock, of Middlethorpe, Va., died suddenly last night at the home of her husband. The funeral will take place to-morrow from the home.

Farley-Haynie.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—James H. Farley, of Lancaster county, and Miss Alice M. Haynie, of this city, were married here last evening at the Methodist parsonage, Rev. J. R. Jacobs performing the ceremony.

Invitations Issued.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., October 12.—Cards have been issued by Mrs. Mary E. Tompkins, of this city, for the marriage of her niece, Miss Nellie Tyler Wright, to George Armstrong Scott, both of this city. The wedding will be solemnized in the Baptist Church here Wednesday evening, October 25, at 7:30 o'clock.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, Petersburg, Va., October 12.

The receipts of the Petersburg post-office for the month ending September 30 last were $6,617.09, as against $5,831.08 for the corresponding month of last year, an increase of $786, or 13.12 per cent. The receipts for the quarter ending September 30 were $19,316.80, as against $16,071.10 for the corresponding quarter of last year, an increase of $3,245.70, or 14 per cent. The business of the office shows an increase each month over the preceding one.

As a proof of the growth and prosperity of the city the sign of "Post Rent" is scarcely to be found on any house in the city and on no stores. As fast as a house is built it is occupied, spoken for in advance. There is great demand for dwellings in all sections of the city.

Big Factory Building.

The Petersburg Trunk and Bag Company is erecting a large factory building on Dunlop Street, on the site of the old frame structure formerly used. The building will be 50 feet wide by 225 feet long and will be five stories high. It will be practically fireproof.

An Interesting Case.

Chairman Robert Gilliam, of the Fourth District Democratic Committee, which meets in this city to-morrow evening to hear contests arising out of the late primary election involving the office of Commonwealth's attorney of Notoway, and the State senatorial nomination for the district embracing the counties of Lunenburg and Prince Edward, has received a petition from B. M. Bonifant, of Powhatan, filing notice of contest for the nomination for the House of Delegates for the legislative district composed of Chesterfield and Powhatan. Mr. Bonifant refers to the fact that by act of the Legislature, Chesterfield county was made a legislative district entitled of itself to one delegate, and that Chesterfield, Manchester and Powhatan was made a separate district, entitled to one delegate. W. W. Baker, having no opposition, was declared the nominee for Chesterfield county.

The candidates for the nomination for the other district were W. S. Ivey, of Chesterfield, and the petitioner, Mr. Bonifant, of Powhatan. Powhatan being the Fourth Congressional District and Chesterfield in the Third, Mr. Bonifant asks a joint meeting of the two districts to investigate the manner in which the primary vote was cast and whether as the law contemplated, a give decision in the matter. The Fourth District Committee will not consider the questions raised independently of the Third District Committee.

Death of Mrs. Williams T. Davis.

Mrs. Williams T. Davis died at her residence in Petersburg at 12:30 o'clock P. M. to-day in the eighty-fifth year of her age.

Mrs. Davis was the widow of the founder of the Southern Female College at Petersburg, her husband having died in 1858. She was the daughter of the late Clark Robinson, of Warren county, N. C., and her early life was spent largely in Virginia and Louisiana. She married Mr. Davis during the war period, and had spent her life continuously here since that time. She was a woman of the highest Christian character and the broadest sympathies, and had a host of friends throughout this community and this State. She had been for many years a communicant of Grace Episcopal Church, by whose rector, the Rev. C. Braxton Bryan, her funeral services will be conducted at her residence to-morrow afternoon.

Mrs. Davis leaves surviving three sons and one daughter—Arthur Kyle and Charles Hall Davis, of this city, and W. T. Davis, of Charleston, S. C., and Mrs. C. P. Ehrman, of Salem, Va., all of whom were with her at the time of her death. She was also the stepmother of Richard B. Davis, of this city, Assistant Attorney-General of the State; J. C. Davis, of Ivor, Va.; Mrs. O. B. Morgan, of Richmond, and Mrs. T. L. H. Young, of Dunn, N. C., to all of whom she was bound by the tenderest ties since her marriage to their father during the stirring times of the Civil War and the siege of Vicksburg.

Fine Church Improvements.

The First Baptist Church of this city has undergone great improvements on the interior, in anticipation of the calling of a new pastor. The walls and ceiling have been beautifully painted and frescoed, the pews repaired, a new carpet laid and the pulpit and choir loft renovated. The large pipe organ renovated. The cost was $2,200. The auditorium now presents a very handsome appearance. The Rev. Dr. Oliver, of Florence, S. C., will preach in the church Sunday morning and evening.

HEALTHY MOTHERS

Women who bear children and remain healthy are those who prepare their systems in advance of baby's coming. Unless the mother aids nature in its pre-natal work the crisis finds her system unequal to the demands made upon it, and she is often left with weakened health or chronic ailments. No remedy is so truly a help to nature as Mother's Friend, and no expectant mother should fail to use it. It relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the ligaments, makes pliant and elastic those fibres and muscles which nature is expanding, prevents numbness of limbs, and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. The system being thus prepared by Mother's Friend dispels the fear that the crisis may not be safely met. Mother's Friend assures a speedy and complete recovery for the mother, and she is left a healthy woman to enjoy the rearing of her child. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores.

Write for our free book for expectant mothers which contains much valuable information, and many suggestions of a helpful nature.
